I Listening and Speaking [Oral]

- ❖ Read out the following passage or from the reader “The Singing Cock (P. No.6)” and then ask the following type of questions.
- ❖ Read it twice if necessary with pause / intonation / stress.
- ❖ Consider any three responses for grading.

Once there was a crow. One day she got a piece of bread. She took the piece of bread in her beak and sat on the branch of a tree. She was about to eat the piece of bread.

Just then a fox came there. He saw the crow. He also saw the bread. “I want the piece of bread”, he said to himself.

The fox said to the crow, “Dear crow, you have a sweet voice. Will you sing a song for me?”

The crow thought she really had a sweet voice. She began to sing. “Caw Caw”.

The piece of bread fell from her beak. The fox was happy. He took the bread and ran away.

The crow cried again and again “Caw Caw..... Caw..... Caw”. She was very sad.

1. Why was the crow sad?
 2. If you were in the place of crow, what would you do?
 3. What made the fox happy?
 4. Who is clever?
